	No.	Abst.
Abelski, M. E., Application of rigid threads for more rapid work with variometers (1)	104	5877
Adkins, J. N., The Alaskan earthquake of July 22, 1937 (3)	104	5910
Adler, J. L., New cycle of petroleum exploration (8)	106	6191
Aiken, C. B., Method of and apparatus for magnetically exploring earth strata, U. S. patent 2,220,070 (10)	105	6086
Aktiebolaget Elektrisk Malmletning, Arrangement for measuring the terrestrial magnetic field, U. S. patent 2,234,123 (10)	105	6118
Aliverti, Giuseppina, On the measurement of radioactivity of water; suggestion of a new method (5)	104	5949
American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, Elements of the petroleum industry (9)	105	6073
—— Geophysics (9)	105	6074
American Institute of Physics, Temperature, its measurement and control in science and industry—Symposium held in New York City, November 1939 (9)	107	6327
American Philosophical Society, Commemoration of the life and work of Alexander Dallas Bache and Symposium on geomagnetism (2)	106	6145
Anderson, C. N., Time relation between solar emission and terrestrial disturbances (2)	106	6143
Anderson, J. F., Apparatus for solving seismographic problems, U. S. patent 2,217,720 (10)	104	5983
Armstrong, Paul, The exploration and development of the Calumet mine, Quebec (4)	106	6175
Askania-Werke Aktiengesellschaft, Gravity meter, German patent 691,695 (10)	105	6125
—— Arrangements on portable field measuring instruments, German patent 692,754 (10)	105	6126
—— Arrangement for measuring gravity according to the barometric principle, German patent 697,037 (10)	106	6245
—— Apparatus for measuring gravity, German patent 699,271 (10)	106	6246
—— Gravimeter, German patent 699,272 (10)	106	6247
Athy, L. F., Method and apparatus for seismic surveying, U. S. patent 2,219,508 (10)	104	5991
—— Method of logging drill holes, U. S. patent 2,242,161 (10)	106	6227
—— Method of borehole logging, U. S. patent 2,251,817 (10)	107	6350
